Department of Justice has released the most recent data revealing the arrest of illegal aliens by ICE. Those numbers have increased to over 3,400 arrests in just one month. The Trump administration is trying to crack down on illegal immigration across the board, including targeting those here illegally who are committing crimes. This month, the Trump administration reported that ICE arrested 3,439 illegal aliens on an average of six days a week during July

2019. Since Trump became president, the arrests of illegal aliens in the US have increased. During his first term of office, illegal aliens were arrested at a rate of about 1,000 to 1,200 per month. In October 2019 alone, ICE arrested almost 2,800 illegal aliens. ICE officials note that the current numbers of illegal aliens who are removed from the US each year are higher than the high numbers of illegal aliens who are arrested each month. “The increased number of removed aliens is largely due to the improved effectiveness of ICE’s immigration enforcement initiatives,” ICE stated in a press release. According to ICE, more than half of the illegal aliens arrested — 1,663 — were convicted of major drug trafficking offenses. The report noted that “90 percent of the aliens arrested had been previously identified as priority for removal by ICE.” A total of 1,413 criminal illegal aliens were arrested in July, including 543 who were arrested for the first time, according to the government report. In July, more than half of the aliens arrested were targeted for a previous deportation order, ICE officials told Breitbart News. They pointed to the success of the agency’s Criminal Alien/Immigration Compliance (CAIC) Program — which targets illegal aliens for arrest — as the reason. The National Immigration Forum highlighted
