The result is a football experience that is authentic and realistic, more immersive and dynamic than ever. FIFA World Cup winners and legends from all over the world are now available to construct authentic and dynamic teams of 22 (or more) players, enabling players to jump into their footballing boots and create a team from scratch. [Editors' note: The following is based on the press release from EA Sports and supplemental information from the official FIFA 22 website] Loading The goal of the FIFA World Cup remains the same as in previous FIFA titles: to crown a FIFA World Cup winner. As FIFA World Cup kits for every team in history are available, fans can construct their favorite team in FIFA World Cup kits to prepare for their favorite groups in a single click, as well as compete for ultimate glory. FIFA World Cup kits for every team in history are now available in FIFA 22, and teams can be constructed in FIFA World Cup kits of their past or future, including kits they've never worn before. For the first time in a FIFA title, players can construct their very own FIFA World Cup kits, personalizing their teams however they wish. One unique feature that will feature in FIFA 22 is that players can now construct a complete team of 22 including youth players and guest players, the first time this has been available in a FIFA title. The squad editors in FIFA 22 will allow players to construct, customize and optimize every aspect of a team including kits, formation, tactics and training. Players can even play offline with the squad they assemble, making their FIFA World Cup dream a reality. As the deepest and most dynamic squad editor to date, players will be able to build real-world teams in FIFA 22, including youth players and guest players who can be provided by the media partners. Players will also be able to construct a complete team using premium FIFA World Cup kits or authentic team kits to challenge all competition. New features such as FIFA World Cup virtual rosters and squad editor submissions, as well as shared and public squad editing will expand the squad editor in FIFA 22 even further, giving users the most powerful squad editor to date. A unique feature in FIFA 22 is that players are given the opportunity to construct personal FIFA World Cup kits with the option to include or omit individual player attributes. Additionally, players will be able to take their favorite player to the virtual training pitch and personalize their trainer's appearance and physical attributes. "We
