I assume you have Linux and Python installed on your computer. So, just download the Netcad.exe file to your computer. In Linux, you can do it by right-clicking on the file, clicking "Open with...", then go to "Applications", then click the "Non-Linu" option, then select the "Executable Text files" option. In Windows, you can do it by going to C:\[where you install netcad] etcad-5.1.x-win64\bin, the file will be executable. So extract the.exe file and then move it to where your game's files are stored, and launch it. Once you're on the game's menu, press CTRL+F5 to start a new game.
